SCHOOL MOTTO

Tolle Lege (Take and Read)

The Motto of this school is “Tolle Lege”. These are Latin words which mean Take and Read. These are the words that St. Augustine heard when he was in Milan- Rome, in agony for a search of truth. One day having prayed to God, Augustine pours forth a shower of tears, and admonished by a voice, chanting “tolle lege, tolle lege, tolle lege” he opens the book and reads the words in the letter of St. Paul to the Romans 13: 13; by which, he was changed in his whole soul.

Thus Tolle lege will enlighten students of this school to take up and read in order to obtain knowledge, skills, and values and through embracing them be totally transformed in all the spheres of their lives.

SCHOOL VISION
